Letter of Reference

To whom it may concern:

We have no hesitation in writing a letter of recommendation for Ms Johanna Weigel. She worked with our firm in Berlin from November 1st, 2022 until October 31st, 2023 as a working student in the field of Business Services.

She was assigned the following tasks:

- Concept development and implementation of User Experience (UX), User Interface (UI) designs, as well as strategy development for process optimization within the digital PwC Store
- Creation of graphics, illustrations, user flows, wireframes, high-fidelity mockups, and interactive prototypes based on design systems for marketing materials, newsletters, digital products, tools, websites, and web apps
- Research of product, business, and user insights, as well as the preparation and presentation of results to enhance the user-centricity of the Product Experience Strategy
- Design of a central platform for integrating various systems for employees with the aim of establishing a consistent visual identity
- Creation and implementation of new user-friendly UI/UX concepts for PwC products
- Conceptualization and project management of an AI Knowledge Management tool for automating the previously manual knowledge acquisition of employees
- Development of a Product Experience Strategy for a starter kit to simplify internal use of the design app kit and depict the UX process cycle in digital product development
- Contribution to the design of an online portal for the Public Sector for the submission of digital applications and process optimization with an audit volume of 190 billion euros

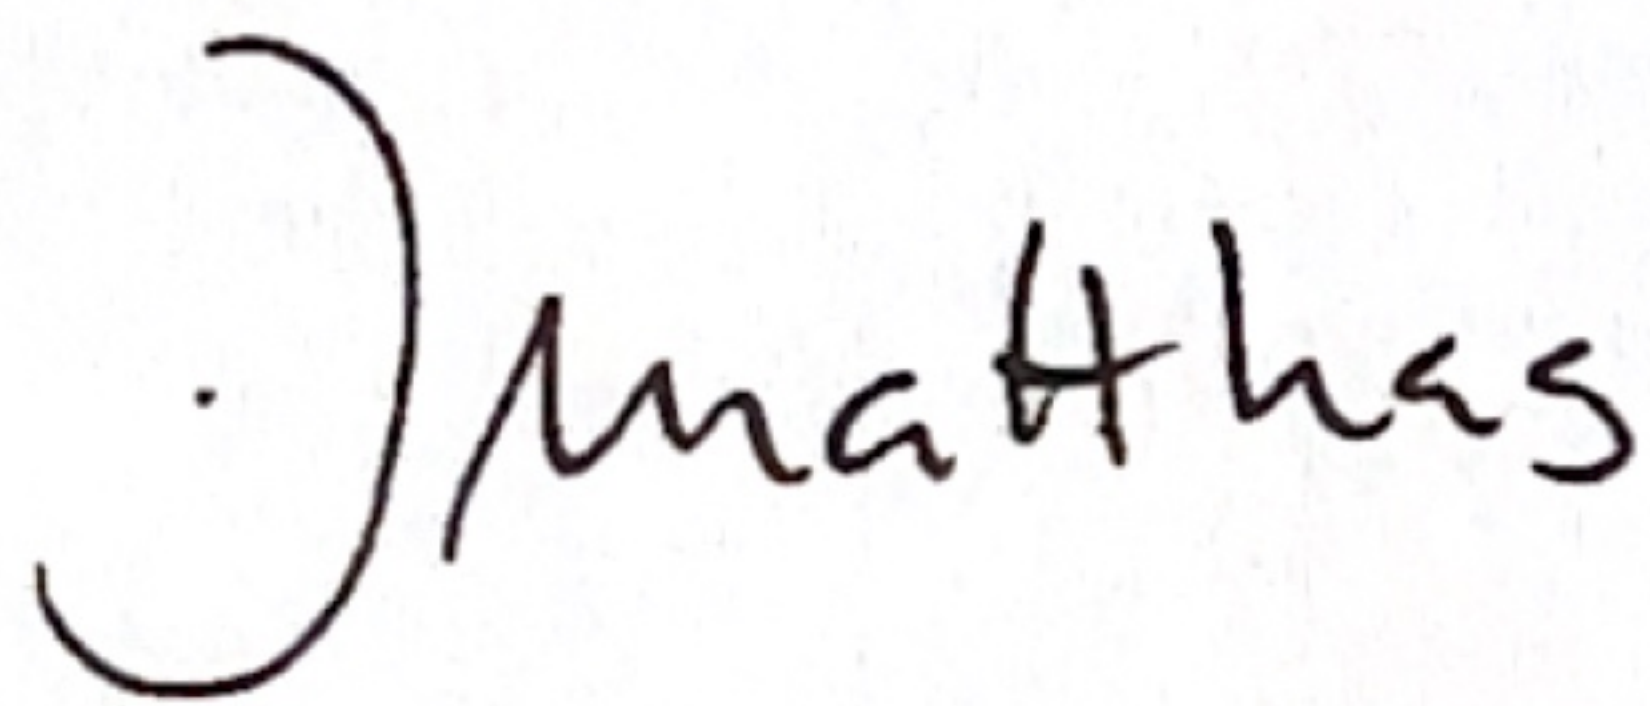

Ms Johanna Weigel had varied specialized knowledge. She communicated her ideas clearly and she always completed her work on time. If she had questions, she was not afraid to ask and always offered solutions for problem solving. She quickly became acquainted with new topics and accepted constructive criticism and instruction well with regards to the tasks that she was involved in.

In closing, Ms Johanna Weigel consistently produced high quality work. We are confident that Ms Johanna Weigel will continue to be very productive. She has our recommendation.

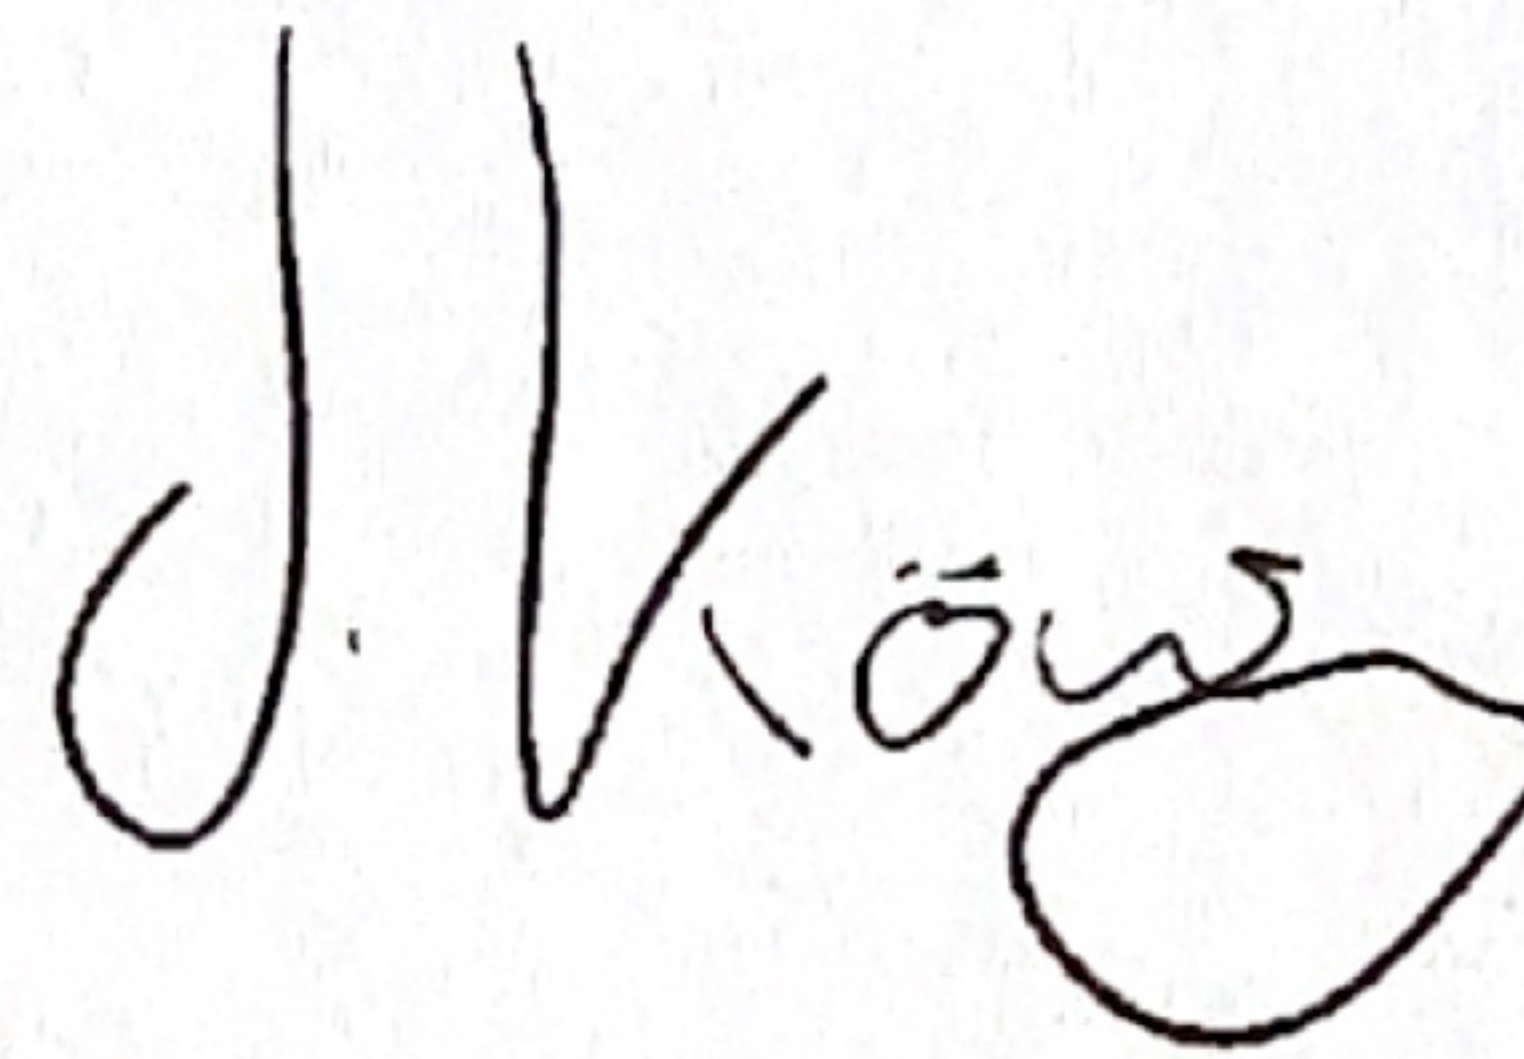

We hope this information proves helpful. We wish her all the best for her private and professional endeavours.
